Judgment was entered yesterday in the City Circuit Court in the case of J. S. Sykes against George E. Anderson for $10.

THERE IS

Just as much style, or lack of it, about baggage as there is about clothes. You would not go away with shabby or worn looking clothes, and you should not go away with baggage that does not look right. It causes the wrong kind of comment. Let your baggage be of Rountree quality. Then you will be satisfied and will be in style.

Machinery Exhibition.

In connection with the congress there will be an exhibition of machinery, materials and everything pertaining to the construction of good roads. The plan is to secure the use of the State Pair Building, where there is room for the exhibition and also for demonstrations and tests. Sections of the roads leading into the grounds will be treated with the various processes, so that those driving to the grounds may be able to judge them in the most practical way.

Have One Hig Laugh.

United Sixtes Senator Rehert L. Taylor, former Governor of Tennenssee, delighted an unusually large audience at the City Auditorium last night with his famous lecture, "The Fiddle and the Bow." He was introduced by Governor William Hodges Mann, and there was a short talk by John Garland Pollard, metalling his arrival, "The Fiddle and the Bow," like "Bob" Taylor, is mostly fun, bearing out his doctrine that more good is accomplished by heing gay than by any other agency save kindness. And he believes agency save kindness. And he believes were described the two. But there were

He deplored the harm done by two familiar maxims—that all men are born free and equal, which is by no means true, and that some are born with inherent wickedness. Some day he said, a better civilization will look more closely into physical and menta conditions, and find out how much the individual is responsible for his ill doing.

Test for Feeble-Mindedness.

A chart was presented by Dr. Goddard, showing tests made of 1,547 children, comprising an entire system of schools, and not a selected group. These were asked questions set apart by ages. Of these, 554 answered "at age," or strictly normal. Out of the remainder, 329 answered a little better than the normal, and 312 a little behind it, and these were grouped as normal, making 78 per cent. of the whole. Forty-nine of those left answered two years ahead of their grade, fourteen answered three years shead and two four years ahead. Referring to this class, Dr. Goddard asked why all this extra intelligence should be
